Important messages

Important- Travel to India

For Internal Capgemini Employees and their Families: 7th May, 11:30 AM CET

Dear Colleagues,

You are aware from the news about the developing tensions between India and Pakistan. The Capgemini Group is monitoring the situation very closely and will do everything possible to ensure your safety and security.

Capgemini India has triggered its Business Continuity Plan and the situation in all our sites is considered 'Business as Usual'.

We have provided guidance below for travelling into/out of the region. At this time, there is no reason to change your plans but be conscious that the situation may evolve any time. We encourage you to stay informed with the latest news, and we will provide you with additional guidance whenever necessary.

+ Short term business travelers in-country: if your trip is close to an end and you are due to fly out of India in the coming hours/days, reconfirm your flight with the airline and Egencia and proceed normally unless local authorities or the government of your country provides specific instructions. Be alert, stay vigilant and avoid any public gatherings.

+ Long-term travelers/expats: The same guidance above applies to you and members of your family who are possibly in-country with you. At this stage schools are still open, as well as government offices and private sector activities.

+ Business Travelers bound to India in the coming hours/days: Contact your airline/Egencia to make sure flights are operating and follow their guidance. So far there is no evidence that you should cancel or postpone your travel but enquire with your client and colleagues in India if postponing should be considered.

For help and advice, you may contact:

+ Group Security Center: Corporate, People Safety / +33 139484003

+ Patrick GIDON: patrick.gidon@capgemini.com / +33 689208974

Important - Hotel Expense Claims
